

SOCIETY

Among the arrivals on the barkentine Archer yesterday morning were: Prof. and Mrs. A. W. Smith, Mr. and Miss Roberts and Miss Mosher, composing a party, now the guests of Judge and Mrs. W. F. Frear, Punahou. They will remain on the Islands until the middle of August, spending their time at the Volcano, on this island and probably on some of the others of the group. Prof. Smith is the head of the mechanical engineering department and Mrs. Smith professor of household economy in Stanford University, while Miss Mosher, a California lady, is a medical student in Johns Hopkins University.

On Saturday last a dinner to Miss Mabel Hartwell and Mr. A. T. Hartwell, of Boston, was given at the home of Miss Ethel Smith, Nuuanu avenue. There were eight present, and during the evening the number was swelled to about 20 for the enjoyment of that attractive game, progressive "Forty-Two."

On Monday evening Mrs. Wilder gave a dinner to Mr. and Mrs. MacNair, of Oakland, and Dr. Heller and A. C. Harrison, Jr., who left for Borneo on the Peru Tuesday night. Dinner was served on the lanch, much to the delight of all.

An informal tea as a farewell to Miss Penah Judd, was given by Mrs. Swanzy at her home, Beretania street, Saturday afternoon. Quite a number of the young lady's friends were present, and a wholly enjoyable afternoon resulted.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper will return from a three-months' trip in the States on the Mariposa, arriving June 27th.

Miss Ivy Richardson, of Hilo, will return on the Australia for a vacation to be spent with her people in the Rainy City.

The ball in celebration of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, to be given on the night of June 25th, promises to be a grand affair.

Lieutenant Ingersoll, of the U. S. S. Philadelphia will leave for San Francisco on the Gaelic, arriving June 20th.

Mr. Harry Waterhouse will go to Maui on the Kinau today to spend a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Makee came from their home in Kauai on the James Makee yesterday.

July 19th is the date of the Baldwin-Smith nuptials. Invitations will be out soon.

Circuit Court News.

Judge Perry has rendered judgment for Thomas Gay in his suit against Poon for $100 and costs.

The defendant in the case of Kana-kiole vs. Walker has filed a motion to perfect the appeal to the Supreme Court.

The defendant in the case of Manuel Rosa vs. Hawaiian Star filed an answer to the complaint yesterday, denying every allegation.

The Lanpahoehoe Sugar Company has brought suit against the Wilder Steamship Company to recover $4,266.58, the value of goods consigned to the sugar company lost by the wreck of the Likelike on April 22.

A writ of error has been issued by the Supreme Court to the District Magistrate of Honolulu to produce the record and exhibits filed in the case of the Republic vs. Lee Yan, Lee Chung Bank and Ah Chew, convicted of conspiracy.

The final accounts of George Rodick, administrator of the estate of Achew, were filed yesterday.

The Supreme Court decided yesterday that the award of $2,500 to Wilder's Steamship Company's Likelike, as salvage money, for saving the brigantine Lurline at Kahului, Maui, last December, being a one-fourth value of the property saved, was sufficient. The Court declined to reverse the decision of the trial judge in admiralty.

The Court considered all the hazards of the Likelike in saving the vessel and had made its award accordingly.

The will of John Camacho was presented for probate yesterday.
